Gear Earns Most Votes in City Primary; Bossidis Eliminated from Council Race

By Kristi Stephens

A City of Romulus primary election held on Tuesday, September 12, has trimmed the number of candidates seeking a seat on the Romulus City Council to 14—the maximum number permitted for the November general election. Turnout for the election was on the low side, with only 1,585 votes cast.

Placing first in the balloting was City Councilman Randolph Gear, who received 956 votes. Few were surprised at Gear's showing of support, since he has finished either first or second in every election since 1989.

Placing second, with 794 votes, was Deborah Romak. Romak's finish was unusually strong for a newcomer to the campaign trail, and probably owes a great deal to the fact that, over the past two years, she has been the most visible member of RECAP (Romulus Environmentalists Care About People), an environmental group which was formed to oppose the operation of Environmental Disposal Systems' hazardous-waste injection well. Romak's pre-primary campaign may have been the most organized of any candidate's, and if her supporters continue their efforts, Romak could be Gear's most serious challenger for the position of Mayor Pro Tem.

Also finishing in the top 14 were:

- William Wadsworth – 767 votes,
- Michael Prybyla – 723 votes,
- William Crova – 690 votes,
- Mary Collins – 679 votes,
- Jimmie Raspberry – 546 votes,
- Brooker Edwards – 544 votes,
- Ellis Pennington – 526 votes,
- Gwendolyn Sibert – 509 votes,
- Stanley Kretz – 356 votes,
- John Ryznar – 326 votes,
- Jeannine Wafer-Frisson – 318 votes,
- Tony Heimberger – 235 votes.

Eliminated from the list of Council hopefuls was Steven Bossidis, whose total of 211 votes was the lowest among the 15 candidates on the primary ballot.

The final decision concerning who will fill the City's seven available Council seats will be made on Tuesday, November 7, when Romulus voters will also cast their ballots for the offices of Councilman Randolph Gear's 956 votes were tops in the primary.

Mayor, City Clerk, and City Treasurer. Challenging incumbent Beverly McAnally for the position of Mayor will be former Mayor William Oakley. Incumbents Linda Choate (City Clerk) and James Napiorkowski (City Treasurer) will be running unopposed. □

Romulus Police Officers Teach Bike Safety

Romulus Police Officers Lenn White (left) and Jerry Yoscovitz explain the importance of bicycle safety to youngsters.

Some of the officers involved in the Romulus Police Department's newly formed bike unit and traffic patrol officers combined recently to demonstrate proper bicycle safety procedures to youngsters at the Halecreek summer recreation site.

All three officers—Jerry Yoscovitz of Traffic Patrol and Lenn White and Terry Balewski of the Bike Unit—volunteered their time to participate in Halecreek Elementary School's Bike Rally.

The police officers inspected all bicycles brought to them by youngsters, registered the bikes, talked about the importance of bicycle safety and safety equipment, handed out reflectors, and answered the youngsters' multitude of questions.

"We had numerous kids between five and 15 at the site," reported Recreation Department Supervisor Linda Norman. "The officers really did a great job of explaining the proper procedures to the kids."

By Dan Sanchez

Americans are bombarded with poll results these days. Newspapers, magazines, and television newscasts are constantly telling us what we think about the issues of the day. Or do they?

Consider the CNN/U.S. News and World Report poll in the magazine's August 28, 1995 issue, which purports to give Americans' views about vital organs. In the wake of the Mickey Mantle transplant, the purpose of the poll was to determine if Americans think that favoritism is shown to celebrities and to get Americans' views on donating their own organs. The number of persons polled was 817, all of whom were adults. That is $\frac{1}{1,000,000}$ of one percent of American adults if you assume that 75% of Americans are eighteen or older. From that tiniest of fractions, we are told that a statistically valid conclusion about the opinions of all Americans can be stated. This same or very similar fraction is used when polling people about everything from politicians and the laws they make to the O.J. trial.

Can we tell what all or even most people think by sampling a minuscule portion of the population? I decided to try. I asked 24 adults to participate in a survey about their government and the political process. The 14 who agreed to be polled represent a sampling of Romulus residents that is proportionally 100 times greater than the sample used in the U.S. News poll of Americans.

I would like, once again, to thank these people for making the effort to share their opinions.

Editor's note: In the interests of trying to balance the sometimes conflicting ideals of "giving everyone a chance to express their opinions" and "striving for truth and accuracy in publishing," we at "the little paper" have decided to print Mr. Sanchez's article—but with a note of caution attached.

Bennett Claims Survey Shows Mood of Michigan

Senator Loren Bennett (R-Canton Township), who recently released the findings of a survey he mailed in June, asserts that citizens of the Eighth Senate District have not changed their minds on the key issues which won Michigan Republicans the majority in both houses of the Legislature last November. Bennett included the survey in his constituent newsletter, and was overwhelmed with the response he received.

"Approximately 1,800 people took the time to provide serious and thoughtful input on some very difficult issues," stated Bennett. "I am very clear on what the voters expect of me and that is the backbone of good representation. I am confident we will succeed in our goal to have people — not government — forming policy that works for us."

The survey included six basic areas of questioning: a general or miscellaneous section, followed by specific questions regarding the economy, law and order, social services, education, and the environment.

Questions with a more than 90%-affirmative response rate included placing financial contribution limits on local elected officials (91%), and requiring welfare recipients to undergo job training or improve their education to receive benefits (97%).

Bennett also noted that those who responded to his survey want government to get very tough on crime, with 83% favoring chain gangs and 79% favoring the death penalty.

"People are very angry about crime and the effect it has on their communities," Bennett explained. "Our goal is to come up with tough measures to help deter criminal activity."

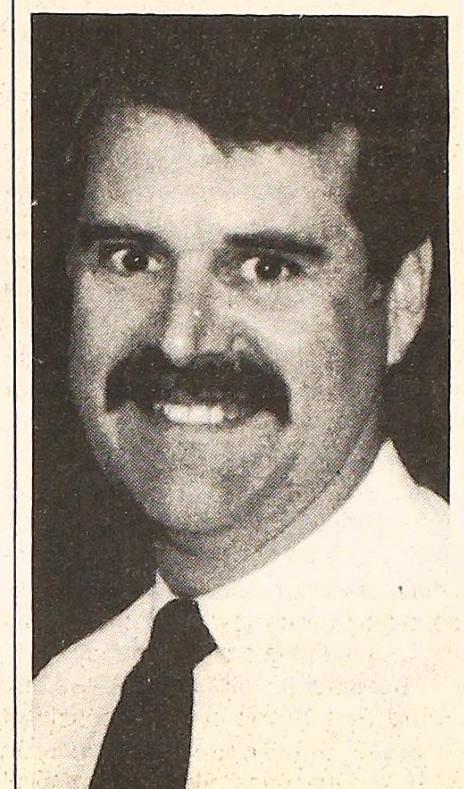

Some other results of the Bennett survey:

General

- Do you favor term limits for judges and local elected officials?
Yes: 76%. No: 24%.
- Do you support the State spending more money to build new prisons?
Yes: 60%. No: 40%.
- Do you favor the expansion of casino gambling in Michigan beyond Indian reservations?
Yes: 30%. No: 70%.
- Should people have the right to vote by mail?
Yes: 60%. No: 40%.

Economy

- Do you favor laws requiring the government to "buy American" or laws that encourage the purchase of American products?
Yes: 72%. No: 28%.
- Do you favor the privatization of State-run enterprises?
Yes: 64%. No: 36%.

Senator Loren Bennett

Law and Order

- Do you favor the ban on assisted suicide?
Yes: 34%. No: 66%.

Social Services

- Do you believe that women who have additional children while on welfare should have their benefits increased?
Yes: 11%. No: 89%.
- If the State requires welfare mothers to work, should the State be required to provide transportation and day care?
Yes: 38%. No: 62%.
- Should the State return children who have been abused to their parents, after counseling, even if there is some risk they may continue to be abused?
Yes: 9%. No: 91%.

Education

- Should parents be allowed to select which public schools their children attend, regardless of school boundaries?
Yes: 55%. No: 45%.
- Do you think that private K-12 schools should receive State aid?
Yes: 36%. No: 64%.

Environment

- Should the State provide more financial assistance for the maintenance and supervision of State parks?
Yes: 73%. No: 27%.
- Do you think the Department of Natural Resources needs to reform how they deal with the public?

Pitoniak Is On-line with a New Internet Address

Representative Pitoniak's address is gpitoni@house.state.mi.us. The cost of Pitoniak's Internet mailbox is included in his preapproved Legislative office operations budget. Each member of the House has the option of establishing an Internet mailbox.

"This is just one more way of making Legislators more accessible to constituents," Pitoniak said. "Now, people from Romulus, Taylor, or elsewhere around the Country can contact me electronically to share ideas or find out about new programs, policies, and legislation."

"I urge all my constituents who have access to the Internet to write me and let me know what they think of this new service," he continued.

Of course, Pitoniak is also reachable through his district phone number (313-295-7579) and address (9698 Rose, Taylor, MI 48180), as well as through his Lansing office phone number (517-373-0852) and address (P.O. Box 30014, Lansing, MI 48909).

Earlier this year, the Michigan House of Representatives established a worldwide web page on the Internet. A web page is similar to an electronic bulletin board. The House's web page provides electronic mail, government-related news, a list of district representatives, a committee list, and other information about Legislative activity in Michigan.

The electronic mail address for the Michigan House of Representatives is: HTTP://www.house.state.mi.us. □

Representative Greg Pitoniak

State Representative Greg Pitoniak (D-Romulus/Taylor) recently announced that he has established an electronic mail address on the Internet. Now, anyone with a personal computer who has access to electronic mail through one of several on-line services can communicate electronically with Pitoniak's office in Lansing.

Pitoniak is among the first State Representatives in the Nation to have his office plugged directly into the Internet.

"As we move into this new era of instant global telecommunications, it is important that government keep up with the rapidly changing methods of exchanging information," he said.

followed. Chief among these rules is that a sample must be representative of the population being studied.

We at "the little paper" have no idea whether or not the U.S. News poll used reliable sampling methods; one would have to ask for details of the study to know for sure. Nor do we know if the 14 people that Mr. Sanchez sampled are truly representative of the residents of Romulus – but chances are, unless Mr. Sanchez put a great deal more study into selecting his sample group than he lets on, they are not.

Still, many of the questions that Mr. Sanchez has asked his fellow residents are matters which concern us all, and perhaps they may serve as a springboard to further communication among our citizens. It is in that hope that we have published his article. □

The Center's monthly potluck meal – featuring a main dish of delicious grilled hamburgers prepared by the Center's super chefs – will be held at the Center on Wednesday, September 20, at 12 p.m. As always, seniors are invited to bring a dish and bring a friend.

Friday Shopping Trips

For a transportation fee of $1.50, Romulus seniors can ride the Center's van to the Southgate Shopping Plaza on September 22. Sign up at the Center.

Special Trips

Seniors interested in more information about these or other special trips planned by the Romulus Senior Center may contact Marilyn Hoffer at 942-6852.

• Sauder Farm and Craft Village – Take a golden autumn afternoon to visit northwest Ohio's Sauder Village – a nonprofit, living-history complex established in 1976 to pay tribute to our American forefathers who tamed the wilderness. You'll visit cabins and shops built over a century ago by hearty ancestors, and hear their story told by historically costumed staff and working, skilled tradesmen. You'll also have a chance to enjoy meals prepared from old-time recipes (just like Grandma's!) at The Barn Restaurant. Cost of this one-day trip, which departs September 29, is just $47.

• Branson, Missouri – Visit the number-one motorcoach destination in the USA when Romulus seniors travel to Branson, Missouri, to take in an entertainment extravaganza! The $499 cost (based on double-occupancy rates) of this six-day/five-night tour includes round-trip motorcoach transportation; two nights' lodging enroute; three nights' lodging in Branson; lunch aboard the Branson Belle; two family-style dinners in Branson; and admission to the Par-a-dice Riverboat Casino, the Yakov Smirnoff Breakfast Show, the Ozark Discovery Imax Theatre, and five additional shows.

• Gambling at the Clarion Kewadin

– Those who like to flirt with Lady Luck will want to take advantage of a special all-day gambling package being offered by the Clarion Kewadin Hotel & Casino. The $119-per-person cost (based on double-occupancy rates) of the two-day/one-night trip, which departs November 16, includes round-trip motorcoach transportation, one night's lodging, and a complimentary casino package of $10 in blackjack chips, $20 in quarters, one pull tab, and two free drinks, as well as a 10% discount at the hotel restaurant. A $50 deposit confirms your reservation, with the balance of the cost due no later than October 16.

Bowlers Sought for Senior League

Although fall league play has already begun, regular and substitute bowlers are still needed for the Senior Citizens League. Bowlers of all skill levels are welcome. For information, call Marilyn at the Center: 942-6852.

Personal Transportation Service

Senior citizens who have no other means of transportation can take advantage of the Romulus Senior Center's personal transportation program. For a fee of $1, seniors can arrange to be taken anywhere within the City limits in order to conduct personal affairs such as doctor appointments, banking, or shopping. The service is available each Thursday between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. only, so it's best to make your reservation as far ahead as possible. For more information, call the Center (942-6852).

Flu Shots

Annapolis Hospital staff will visit the Romulus Senior Center on Wednesday, October 11, to administer flu vaccinations to people of all ages. No appointment is necessary; shots will be given on a first-come, first-served basis from 8 a.m. to noon. Shot recipients must sign a consent form prior to vaccination. Cost is $5.

Free Blood-pressure Screening

Romulus seniors can have their blood pressure checked by Community Emergency Medical Service (CEMS), free of charge, at the Romulus Senior Center on the first Monday (second Monday if the first falls on a holiday) of every month from 1 to 2 p.m. No appointment is necessary. □

In Loving Remembrance of Rose Barbara Means

July 29, 1931 to August 14, 1995

On July 29, 1931, The Lord sent us Rose Barbara Kesser through Miles Kesser and Rosila Cop. Rose was the youngest of 10 brothers and sisters.

One February day in 1950, she met a young man named Robert Means, and she knew immediately that he was the man she was going to marry. Five months later, her dream came true. . . . On her birthday – July 29, 1950 – she married the man she loved so deeply.

Living in Elizabeth Township, Pennsylvania, Rose and Robert began their family with the births of Robert, Russell, and Rhonda. After 12 years, Rose and her family moved with her husband's job (at Kelsey-Hayes) to Romulus, Michigan, where they settled down and made a home on Ferndale Street. There, they had two more children, Reed and Regina.

Later, Rose was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis, which limited her activities. As time went on, her love for her husband and family grew – and, because of this love, she was pulled back from the Gates of Heaven more than once.

On November 15, 1994, when Rose lost her loving husband due to heart problems, she also lost a big part of her life. Even with her children and 12 grandchildren, nothing could fill the void in her heart.

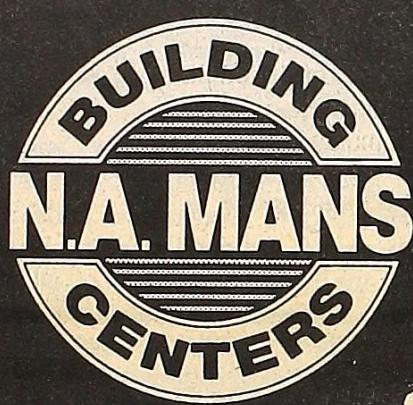

Nine months after her husband's death, and 16 days after her 64th birthday and what would have been her 44th wedding anniversary, Rose Means passed away. She walks again with the man she loved.

Following a memorial mass held at Sacred Heart Church in McKeesport, Pennsylvania, on Saturday, August 19, 1995, Rose was put to rest next to her husband at Mt. Vernon Cemetery–McKeesport.

We'll always love our mom, and we'll always miss her. Knowing that she is now with our dad eases the pain of losing them both. They are together once again.

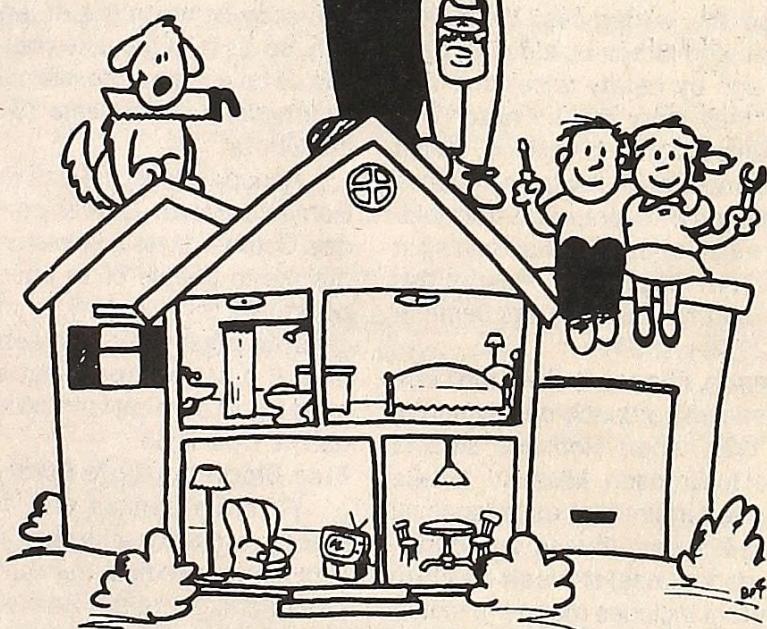

We love you, Ma!
Regina, Russell, and Reed

The Rose Beyond the Wall

*A rose once grew where all could see, sheltered beside a garden wall.
And, as the days passed swiftly by,
it spread its branches, straight and tall. . .*

*One day, a beam of light shone through a crevice that had opened wide –
The rose bent gently towards its warmth, then passed beyond to the other side. . .*

*Now, you who deeply feel its loss,
be comforted – the rose blooms there –
It's beauty even greater now, nurtured by God's own loving care.*

I love you, Mom!
Regina
